Memorial United Methodist Church Hosts

A "Day Apart" observance will be held in the Appomattox Memorial United Methodist Church on December 5, 1973 at 10:30 a.m.

The theme: Many Gifts, One Spirit. The service has as its purpose the promotion of Spiritual Growth or Christian Personhood. It is a part of the annual program of the United Methodist Women of the Virginia United Methodist Conference, Farmville District.

The speaker of the morning is the Rev. Earl. S. Tyson of Scottville, Va. He is a noted evangelist and a dynamic speaker. He travels in various areas of the Virginia conference telling the "Good News." He is an ordained minister of the United Methodist Church, Virginia Conference. Mr. Tyson is unique in that he comes from a "Preacher Family.' His father and five brothers have all been called to the United Methodist Church. He was educated in the North Carolina schools, at Guilford College and at Union Theological Seminary in Richmond. He has held local pastorates for seventeen years prior to entering the ministry of evangelism in 1970.

In addition to his evangelistic ministry, Mr. Tyson is co-founder director of Emmaus, where older teen-age girls may experience Christian living.

There will be special music by Mr. Wayne Keffer, With Mrs. Dan Harvey Accompanist. She will also be organist for the day. Holy Communion will be observed. The Rev. Henry Riley is minister of the church. Mrs. Ben Harvey is President of the United Methodist Women there.

The service is planned under the District Mission Co-ordinator of Christian Personhood, Mrs. R. Allen Brisentine of Farmville chairman.

dolph Edmonds. Ms. Edmonds was a former classmate in Howard University while Dr. Edmonds was a good friend who taught drama at A & M University, Talla, Fla. Ms. Jordan enjoyed her vacation very much because she was an instructor of Drama and English, at Lawrenceville College for a number of years and that she was with good friends.

Mr. Peter Flood is visiting in his old home town this week, with relatives and friends. While in Appomattox, Va, He was the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Stevens. We were all happy to see "Pete".

Ms. Ann Ruth Savin, of Ms. Gracie the Brooklyn, N.Y., is visiting her aunt, Ms. Gracie Branch.

See you next week!!!

First Year APS Students Study Basic Four Food Groups

First year students at Appomattox Primary School have been studying the Basic Four Food Groups in health classes.

As a culminating activity, FHA girls from Appomattox Intermediate School took the students on a guided tour of Wilbun's Grocery Store. Here the students gained first hand experience reviewing the many different kinds of foods we eat and the various ways these foods are made available to us.
